Friends Seek Funds To Buy Station Wagon For P.B.C. Director

Associates Point Out Romeika Has Traveled 34,000 Miles in Car

A movement is under way to purchase a station wagon for the use of Patrolman Joseph Romeika, director of the Freeport Police Boys Club. With this and in view of a group of his friends decided to raise a fund by an appeal to the public to buy the car. Contributions may be sent to Mr. Romeika by addressing them to P.O. Box 167, Freeport, in his care.

Since the P.B.C. was founded in 1948, Patrolman Romeika has promoted year-round activities for more than 600 Freeport boys. To do this he has been compelled to use his own automobile, because it is impossible to conduct the various activities without the daily use of a car. The director's speedometer shows he has traveled more than 34,000 miles in his car within 22 months, practically every mile of it in connection with the P.B.C. work.

"Definitely, this type of work calls for a station wagon to be owned by the P.B.C.," a friend said today. "A station wagon is just what the club needs to cover a minimum of the equipment required. If it were not for the fact that a number of interested Freeporters have been donating equipment and uniforms as well as cash, the club membership and program would be far less than it is."

Funds are primarily needed for the purchase of a station wagon and it is felt that the best way to (Continued on Page 3)

VIRGINIA VINEY TO SING IN TRINITY CHORUS

Miss Virginia Viney, 8 Charlott pl., has been selected as contraalto soloist for a performance of the Bach "B Minor Mass" to be presented by the Trinity Radio Choir, conducted by Andrew Vietjen, and an orchestra conducted by George Mead, tomorrow in Trinity Church, Broadway and Wall st., Manhattan.

Miss Viney will also be heard as soloist at a performance of Parker's "Hymn to the Virgin" in Ocean Grove, N.J., during May. She is regularly the contraalto soloist at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth ave. and 10th st., Manhattan, and sings with the Trinity Radio Choir, broadcasting over Station WQBS each Sunday at 9:45 A.M.

WHEN THE CHURCH CAUGHT FIRE

The Rev. Dr. Louis H. Losch, pastor of the First Baptist Church will preach Sunday at 10:45 A.M., on "When the Church Caught Fire." In the evening members of the Youth Fellowship will attend a service in the Second Baptist Church, Bennington Park. Plans are under way for the annual father and son dinner to be given on Friday night April 21.

Edwards Commends Police For Efforts to Save Son's Life

Richard T. Edwards, 95 Elliott pl., has written Mayor Robert L. Duxsee commending the police for their efforts to save the life of his son, Richard T. Edwards, Jr., who was stricken in his car on the morning of March 31 and was dead when the police arrived. He commends especially Patrolman Harry T. Leonard who responded with an ambulance and oxygen and worked for an hour in an effort to revive the child, and Dr. Stephen L. Daly who assisted.

Mr. Edwards also commends Lester Rogers, proprietor of the Bayview Taxi Service, in a letter to the Village Board. Mr. Rogers followed the Police Emergency Squad to the Edwards home and took two younger daughters to a neighbor to be taken care of while Mrs. Edwards was distraught over the death of her son.

The Leader

Eddie Vasil INTRODUCES ... Lyman C. Duryea

"THE DURYEA ORCHID CREATION" has become a flowery symbol for recognition of achievement in civic, charitable, and community work. It is accepted as a token of fellowship and love. It is also symbolic of its creator, Lyman C. Duryea.

LYMAN C. DURYEA

Lyman Duryea is the successful owner of the Duryea Florist establishment on 8 North Main st., which he started ten years ago, and the Freeport Garden Center, 155 West Sunrise hwy. (next to Greyhound), which opened in 1949. Operating these two establishments is the realization of a life-time dream. Ever since he was a child, Lyman Duryea wanted to become self-sufficient; not a charge to others; to make his own way. "He wanted to stand on his own two feet" even though fate decreed that his life should be handicapped by the loss of use of these limbs. However, he never recognized this handicap, instead, it added strength and inspiration.

Infantile paralysis claimed Mr. Duryea as a victim when he was just ready to start school; a five and a half year old boy. He spent the next three or four years in and out of hospitals. He desired to obtain schooling. So with the help of his brother, who pulled him around in a wagon, Lyman attended the grade schools in Roosevelt. He gracefully accepted his position in life, and planned his future as an understanding, intelligent youngster. Lyman always liked flowers and plants, and someday he planned to make that his life's work.

Lyman Duryea was born in Walling River, L.I., 41 years ago. He has lived in Freeport (311 Park ave.) for 27 years. Prior to starting his flower shop, he was known as a talented musician. His trumpet and his band were very popular throughout metropolitan New York and the east coast area, but, after eighteen years of show business Lyman decided he was ready to finally settle into the work he liked, flowers. "I owe what ever success I have," said Mr. Duryea, "to two wonderful and kind women, my mother and my wife Anna. It was their understanding and assistance that made my life as pleasant and happy as it is." Mrs. Duryea, formerly Anna Wohlschlegel of Roosevelt, has been associated with flowers all her life.

During the war, Mr. Duryea wanted to contribute his share of work to the American defense program so he became employed at the Grumman Aviation plant. He is a member of the Freeport Lodge of Elks 1253, Freeport Exchange Club, Freeport Chamber of Commerce, and various florists trade organizations. His establishment employs up to ten persons during the peak seasons. Duryea orchid creations and flower displays have won acclaim and awards wherever they have been shown, and now his talents in the landscaping field are being recognized. The new Professional Building grounds were landscaped by Mr. Duryea.

An orchid to Lyman Duryea for his wonderful philosophy of life and the true spirit which guides him. We join with the many women who have enjoyed your "Duryea Orchid Creations" in saying "Congratulations."

ROOSEVELT BILL PROPOSES FEDERAL BUDGET MAKING
A bill to reorganize Federal budget-making was introduced in the House of Representatives by Representative Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., (Dem.-Lib.) New York, during the debate on the multi-billion dollar appropriations bill. Roosevelt challenged the Republican "economy bloc" to stop chanting their meaningless economy slogan, and get down to the real problem—guaranteeing that the Federal budget contributes to a stable national prosperity at high levels of employment.

Calvin Coolidge P.T.A. Officers are Elected

Mrs. Sol Steinback, 140 California ave., was elected first vice-president, and Mrs. Rex F. Palmer, 134 Connecticut ave., historian, at the annual meeting of the Calvin Coolidge school Parent-Teacher Association of Baldwin. The other officers are Mrs. Frederick Bartholomew, president; Mrs. Helen Kraus, second vice-president; Mrs. Curtis Langdon, recording secretary; Mrs. O. Earl Arthur, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Iver Areskog, treasurer.

Mrs. John H. Curtis, 262 Pennsylvania ave., was moderator of a panel discussion on "Our Children's Behavior—Pro and Con." Mrs. William McDuffee, 245 North Brookside ave., participated in the discussion. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 27, 28 and 29 in a store on Grand ave., Baldwin, just off Sunrise Highway.

L.I.R.R. TIMETABLE CHANGE SET FOR MONDAY, APRIL 17

It was announced today by the Long Island Rail Road. New time-tables will be available at all ticket offices in advance of the effective date.

ELKS LODGE TO INSTALL OFFICERS TONIGHT

Officers elected for 1950-51 will be installed tonight at a meeting of the Freeport Lodge of Elks in the clubhouse. District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler H. Alfred Vollmer will install George W. Berns, exalted ruler-elect and his staff. Dinner will be served in the grill room at 7 o'clock. Edward F. Meaney is chairman of the installation committee.

230 Freeporters Aid In Campaign to Raise $4,400 to Fight Cancer

Mrs. Benjamin J. Reiner Tells of Efforts of Many Volunteer Workers

More than 230 men and women who have volunteered their services, to assist Mrs. Benjamin J. Reiner, Freeport chairman, achieve success in the campaign to raise $4,400 here to fight cancer, by conducting a house-to-house canvass of the village.

These volunteers include professional men, laborers, merchants, industrialists, housewives and career women. Mrs. Reiner said. In addition to the house-to-house canvass, the workers are seeking contributions from their respective professions, organizations and industries.

Mrs. Marion Peterson, 158 Church st., who is partially disabled, contributed $10. (Continued on Page 14)

Chamber to Erect Greeting Signs at Freeport Gateways

General Meeting to Be Held at Lombardo's Monday Night, May 1

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday night in the Shorecrest Hotel it was voted to purchase six signs, 3 by 3 feet in size to be erected at the principal entrances and exits of the village. One side will bear the greeting, "Welcome to Freeport," and the other an invitation "Welcome Come Again."

The signs are expected to be received in from a week to ten days and will be installed as soon as they arrive.

Announcement was made that negotiations were in progress to bring a large industry requiring 40,000 square feet of floor space to Freeport.

Plans are under way for a general open meeting to be held Monday night, May 1, at Guy Lombardo's East Point House. President Joseph Goldblatt said a general invitation would be issued for all members, business men and women and their guests to attend.

Firemen to Install R. N. Kinsey and Staff On Saturday Night

Public Invited to Rites In H.S. Auditorium; Southard to Officiate

Robert N. Kinsey will be installed as chief of the Freeport Fire Department, with his two deputies and all company officers at public exercises to be held Saturday night in the Freeport High School auditorium. Chief-elect Kinsey, who is to succeed Frank J. Smith as head of the fire department, today issued an appeal for the public to attend the installation, saying he would like to have all hear what the firemen are doing for the village.

Julius C. Jacob will be inducted as first deputy, and John E. Marra, who won out in a contest with William Noll by a 208 to 102 vote, as second deputy. Burford M. Southard will be the installing officer, while Dwight Boland is chairman of the installation committee.

Following the induction of officers, a show will be put on by members of the Freeport Police Boys Clubs under the direction of Patrolman Joseph Romeika. The evening's program will be concluded with supper at the South Shore Yacht Club.

The departmental election Thursday night in headquarters was featured by a write-in vote for former Chief Harry J. Chiusano, for the Second Battalion District delegate. Retiring Chief Smith's name was the only one on the ballot for the office, but unbeknown to Mr. Chiusano, a campaign to elect him to the office was started. He received the votes of 118 delegates, 16 of which were ruled void, reducing his total to 102, while Mr. Smith polled 137. Mr. Chiusano said he would have declined to serve if elected.

Mr. Kinsey, unopposed for chief, received 307 votes, and Mr. Jacob for first deputy, 308.

Besides Chairman Boland the installation committee comprises Joseph Manz, Mr. Marra, Frank S. Snedeker, Mr. Kinsey and Mr. Jacob.

JOHN STRANEY BURIED IN CALVARY CEMETERY

A requiem mass was celebrated Saturday morning in Our Holy Redeemer R.O. Church for John Straney, who died last Thursday in his home, 53 East Dean st. Burial followed in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island City, under the direction of Thomas M. Quinn & Sons.

Mr. Straney was born in Ireland 78 years ago and coming to America at the age of 17, became an iron worker. He had lived with his sister, Mrs. Cecelia McGlin in Freeport for 17 years. He never married. He had been retired for five years. His sister is his only survivor.

The young man placed the package of paints on my desk and started to leave. None of the usual jokes or horse-play today. I've known Bob for a long time. I also know he had a speech impediment. —

He's a stutterer. He paused at the door and then turned back. I knew he wanted to talk.

Slowly, carefully he said, "I can't — I just can't." —

"What's up Bob?" I asked, feigning a calm I did not possess.

"When I'm back at the office, it's O.K." He started. Then disgustedly he added, "You know where my office is—way at the end of the building. I'm practically hidden—I don't mind that and they know it. They know what happens to me when I have to talk to people. I just freeze up—I die."

I was anxious to say a hundred comforting things but instead I just sat silently waiting for him to go on.

He laughed hysterically and said, "You want to hear a joke—a real fine joke? Well—listen to this—it's a scream. I just want to lunch—I just sat silently waiting for him to go on."

I tried and tried to say it—but I just couldn't. There was a young girl behind the counter. She was a nice girl. I could see her waiting for me to say something. You want to hear the end of the joke—well I ordered something else. Yes, I ate it because I could say it."

My throat felt awfully dry with a rising anger. All of the injustices that surround us seemed insurmountable. There was nothing I could say.

Calmly now, he said, "It's always been like that, ever since I was a little kid. Answering a telephone, talking to a girl, applying for a job, or hearing someone laugh when you say something."

"You've always been able to talk to me," I tried.

"That's the funny part. Sometimes it's so easy, in fact there's a lot of people who don't even know," he said.

Before long he arose and gently closed the door behind him.

It's been a long time since I've seen Bob, but I find myself wondering again and again if there was anything I might have done that I did not do.

Holy Name Members At Easter Sunday Mass

Members of the Holy Name Society and many other men of the church attended the monthly mass at 10 o'clock in the Holy Name Church, Sunday at 7:30 o'clock in Our Holy Redeemer R.C. Church. The mass was celebrated by the Rev. John J. Mahon, the pastor, and the Rev. John J. Madden, his assistant.

Solmen high mass at 10 o'clock was attended by a congregation numbering at least 1,000. Father McNally, of the Caputini Fathers, participated.

On Holy Thursday night 150 members of Bishop Molloy Council, K. of C., started from Our Holy Redeemer Church, and proceeded to churches in Roosevelt, Merrick, Bellmore and Seaford saying a decade of the rosary in each.

South Nassau Auxiliary Silver Tea a Success

About 80 members and guests attended the annual silver tea given by the Freeport Auxiliary of the South Nassau Communities Hospital in the home of Mrs. Alfred J. Brady Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Paul George, chairman of the arrangements committee was assisted by Mrs. Alfred Kusgh, Mrs. Albert E. Miller, pianist, played throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Gordon F. Waaser, Miss Myrian Myers, Mrs. Benjamin M. Asch and Mrs. William Strohsahl poured, while Mrs. Walter Stevenson and Mrs. Theodore Spitzler assisted in serving. Mrs. Howard Edwards was in charge of the cake and white elephant table.

Mrs. Waaser, the president; Mrs. Bennett Minton, Jr., Mrs. Howard F. Munro and Mrs. John J. Zender were interviewed by a representative of Station WHLI. Their talks were transcribed and will be re-broadcast later.

A silver service which is to be disposed of for the benefit of the hospital fund was displayed. The center piece on the serving table was of sweet peas.

Many Groups to Join In Memorial Day Rites

All veterans and civic organizations in Freeport have accepted invitations to participate in the Memorial Day parade and exercises following in the Municipal Stadium Chairman Samuel M. Gerber announced at a meeting of the Memorial Day Observance Committee Monday night in the Municipal Building.

The committee will decorate all veteran's graves with American flags and Legion and V.F.W. markers probably before Memorial Day. The program and the line of march will be announced later.

Mr. Gerber has requested Gold Star Mothers or families not listed on Village records to communicate with him at 130 Union st., or Guy A. Russell, 50 Mount Ave.

The next meeting will be Monday night May 15.

Bruening to Give Recital As Chopin Club Guest

Alfred Bruening, violinist, will give a recital as the artist at the annual guest night of the Chopin Club in the home of Mrs. Cornelius VanRens, Wallace st., next Wednesday night.

Mr. Bruening is a graduate of the Curtis School of Music, Philadelphia, where he studied under Leo Lubatitz, and the Juillard Graduate School where his teacher was Edouard Dethier. He is now studying under Max Pilzer.

The artist is a former concert master of the New York Philharmonic Society, and was soloist of the New Orleans Symphony while in the Army.

A&P Asks Dismissal Of Dissolution Suit

Denies All Anti-Trust Charges in Filing Answer To Government Action

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. flatly denied government anti-trust charges in U.S. District Court this week and termed the civil suit against it an effort to change the nation's "entire economic structure."

In its first formal answer to the complaint seeking dissolution of the 90-year-old food chain, A & P said there is no justification in fact or in law for the drastic and confiscatory destruction of the company.

A & P denied in detail the charges of restraint of trade and monopoly brought under the Sherman Act.

Defendants John A. Hartford, chairman of the board, George L. Hartford, treasurer, and the A & P asked through counsel that the complaint be dismissed. The answer was filed by the Manhattan law firm of Cahill, Gordon, Zetser & Reinhold.

"The plaintiff," A & P contended, "is asking this court to adopt, by judicial fiat, new and extremist principles of law which would result in a complete remodeling of the entire economic structure of this country."

A & P termed its expansion a "natural growth," which came almost entirely from within the company and not by means of buying out competing companies.

The answer said that A & P "has made substantial contributions toward revolutionizing the food business," with enormous and incalculable savings to the consumer and especially to the worker families."

The effect of the company's activities "has not been to restrain trade or to prevent competition," the answer continued. "On the contrary, its competition has greatly promoted trade and increased competition."

Thus, dissolution of the company, A & P said, "would result in a decrease rather than an increase in competition."

The food chain contended a decrease or dissolution is entirely unwarranted because:

"1. A & P is not a monopoly or otherwise illegal in itself.

"2. There is no clear, wilful, serious and continuing violation of the anti-trust laws.

"3. Relief, if any were necessary, could be obtained through other means.

"4. The public interest will be harmed and not served thereby and competition would not be increased but diminished."

A physical education demonstration by pupils of the Centennial Ave. school featured a P-T.A. meeting held recently in the school.

The program consisted of marches, relay races, musical games, exercises, pyramids, tumbling and a square dance by boys and girls of the fifth grade.

Miss Catherine Attridge, Arthur Flechner and Roy Danahy, physical education instructors, directed the program.

A short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Frederick Pauerbach preceded the exhibit in the gymnasium.

At the next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday there will be a children's drama with children of the fifth-grade taking part in the discussion. Principal Joseph P. Mooney, will serve as moderator.

Physical Education Demonstrated for P.T.A.

A physical education demonstration by pupils of the Centennial Ave. school featured a P-T.A. meeting held recently in the school.

The program consisted of marches, relay races, musical games, exercises, pyramids, tumbling and a square dance by boys and girls of the fifth grade.

Miss Catherine Attridge, Arthur Flechner and Roy Danahy, physical education instructors, directed the program.

A short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Frederick Pauerbach preceded the exhibit in the gymnasium.

At the next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday there will be a children's drama with children of the fifth-grade taking part in the discussion. Principal Joseph P. Mooney, will serve as moderator.

Vera Levene Marries In Manhattan Ceremony

Miss Vera Levene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Levene, Babylon Turnpike at Grand ave., was married to Alexander Welsz, son of Mrs. Rosina Welsz, of Manhattan, Saturday afternoon in the Community Church, East 35th st., Manhattan. Rabbi Edward Klein performed the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Levene, as maid of honor, Miss Judith Levene, another sister, and Miss Myrna Orszag, of Forest Hills, niece of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids. Louis Welsz was best man for his brother.

A reception in the church followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Welsz left by plane for Florida. The bride was graduated from the Bank st. School and Columbia University. She is a teacher in Roosevelt and studying psychology for post graduate work at the New School for Social Research, Manhattan. Her husband is an instructor in that subject at the school, where he is completing his doctorate. He saw service in the Army Air Force during World War II.

Many Freeporters Visit Passagrille Beach Fla.

PASSAGRILLE BEACH, Fla., April 13—It seems that all paths from Freeport, L.I., to Florida's West Coast lead to the Pelican Lodge operated by former residents of Freeport, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pesce.

Among this winter season's visitors from Freeport were Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Leck, of Putnam ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Axel Thelsen, of Rose st.; Miss Muriel Titus, of Rose st.; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. McGlone, past exalted ruler of Freeport Elks; Sheriff and Mrs. H. Alfred Vollmer, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny, of Wallace st.; and Mr. and Mrs. Marcello Barquero, of Pine st.

The Pelican Lodge is located at Redington Beach and also at the new exclusive Bahama Shores Club on several occasions.

The Pelican Lodge is located at Passagrille Beach, one of Florida's garden spots, and is situated on beautiful Boca Ciega Bay (small mouth bay). Mrs. Pesce was the past guest of Mrs. James Leck the past summer.

Nassau Physicians Taking Courses To Aid In Detection Of Cancer Cases

A drive to make every Nassau doctor's office a cancer detection center has been opened by the County Medical Society and the Nassau Cancer committee, Dr. Ralph A. Camardella has announced.

Dr. Camardella, a representative of the society to the Cancer committee, said the plan involves the study of the newest methods of cancer detection by Nassau doctors in small study courses at Meadowbrook hospital's tumor clinic. The plan was organized and arranged by the Cancer committee.

Under the plan, doctors visit the Meadowbrook clinic in groups of four once each week for six weeks. On each of the six visits the doctors, under the supervision of clinic specialists, study the newest cancer detection methods as they are now being used. The first study group will finish its course next week.

The idea for the plan came after Nassau doctors had expressed a desire for such a study course and brought the matter before the professional committee of the County Cancer board. More than 50 doctors have already expressed a desire to participate in the plan. "We are trying to increase the tempo of the drive to detect cancer in its early stages," Dr. Camardella said. "Under this plan each county physician will have a high index of cancer suspicion. If such a condition can be made to exist in Nassau many cases of cancer, being detected in the early stages, can be successfully combated and cured."

To help the fight against cancer Dr. Camardella urged Nassau residents to take part in the County Cancer committee's $100,000 fund raising campaign now in progress.

L. I. Ass'n Sponsors Talk on Wage, Hour Law

The recently enacted Federal Wage-Hour Law, interpreted by experts as being far more intricate than surface signs would show, will be discussed by Benjamin J. Verne, attorney and industrial relations counsel, at a luncheon sponsored by the Long Island Association's Wage and Hours Clinic Tuesday in the Garden City Hotel, Garden City.

Employers who regard the recent amendment to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 as affecting only workers in interstate commerce are living dangerously, according to William R. McGowan, Wage-Hour Administrator. "He reported that letters reaching the Wage-Hour Division indicate that some of the rules are hard to understand and even more difficult to apply."

It is to aid Long Island business men to understand the law better as it affects them that the Industrial Bureau of the Association has invited Mr. Verne to discuss the law as it applies to industry, agriculture, commercial fishing, distributors, retailing and wholesaling.

Specific questions from those attending the luncheon will be welcomed. Each person attending will receive a guide to handling over-time payments prepared in simplified form with specific examples for the average business man.

Indian Relics Shown At Memorial Library

O'Halloran Finds to Remain Until May 15; Collected on Island

A collection of Indian relics found in Brooklyn, Queens, Nassau and Suffolk by John O'Halloran, of Brooklyn, is on display at the Freeport Memorial Library where it may be seen through Monday, May 15.

Mr. O'Halloran advised Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kelly, the librarian, he became interested in the study of Indian relics about eight years ago, and began collecting them five years later.

He frequently goes on excavating expeditions with members of the Nassau County Museum who are also interested in Indian relics. Their last trip was made to Glen Cove and proved a successful one.

The young collector would like to see as many Long Island Indian relics preserved as possible and suggests that persons having (local) authentic Indian relics contact him care of Tuckersville Preserve, Sunrise Highway, Seaford.

His collection contains a few relics from New York State mainland which he is showing for comparison with the local finds. The artifacts are of bone, stone and shell and are pre-historic in origin. A number of the relics were found at the Harbor Green Site in Massapequa during excavations in 1935.

Mr. O'Halloran is working on a survey and hopes ultimately to have a map which will show every Indian Site that existed on Long Island. He would appreciate it if persons who have accurate information of such sites would communicate with him.

The collection which is on a tour of Long Island is available for exhibit to libraries and museums having suitable exhibit cases. Mrs. Kelly said the relics would be of special interest to grade and high school students who annually study Long Island Indians.

Rev. J. J. Madden to Give Holy Name Rally-Address

The Rev. John J. Madden, assistant pastor of Our Holy Redeemer R.C. Church, is to give the principal address at the Holy Name rally to be held in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, Sunday afternoon May 7. Rt. Rev. Francis P. Connolly, of Brooklyn, diocesan director of Holy Name Societies announced today. Daniel J. Carmichael has been placed in charge of publicity.

The rally, according to Dr. Connolly, is to be a public profession of the Catholic faith concerning communistic inroads against Christianity throughout Europe and other sections of the world.

Long Island S.A.R. Unit Plans for Annual Meeting

J. Ray Johnson has been nominated for re-election at the annual meeting of Long Island Chapter, S.A.R., to be held in the Lord Sirling chapter house of the D.A.R., Nichols court, Hempstead, Thursday night, April 27. Dr. Oscar H. Darlington, chairman of the history department of Hofstra College, is to be the speaker.

The rest of the slate as recommended by the nominating committee comprises: Julian D. Smith and John E. Eldridge, vice-presidents; William K. Tenney, treasurer; F. Wade Schryver, recording secretary; Walter Camp, Jr., corresponding secretary; H. Douglas Butler, chaplain; Everett J. Becker, historian; J. Edwin Clark, registrar, and Dr. Richard G. McChesney, and Charles A. Hewlett, members of the board of managers for three years.

J. C. Britt, Navy Recruit Is Sent to Great Lakes

James C. Britt, seaman recruit, U. S. N. 25 East ave., is undergoing recruit training at the world's largest Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Recruit training is the sharp break between civilian and Naval life in which the new Navy man learns the fundamental principles of the Naval service.

In the course of his training the recruit is taught seamanship, Navy customs, terms, basic ordnance, gunnery, signaling and navigation.

On completion of his training the recruit is assigned either to units of the Fleet or to a service school for specialized training.

Atlantic-South Square Dance Will Be Held Saturday Night

Plans for the second annual square dance to be held Saturday night in Pythian Hall were completed at the monthly meeting of the Atlantic-South Civic Square Dance Club, Mrs. Edmund R. O'Sullivan, announced that Paul, leader of the Continental Ensemble of Franklin Square, would do the calling and provide the music. She declared everyone would miss a good time that stayed away from the affair.

Eddie Vasil, the Leader columnist, was the speaker of the evening. He gave some interesting accounts of the life of a columnist and spoke of the development of Freeport, predicting great things for the future of the village.

"We're going to take the lead on the South Shore of Long Island and we're going to hold it," he said, "because Freeport is built on a solid foundation."

Clinton L. Golden, chairman of the Municipal Beautification Committee, appealed for the co-operation of the members of the association in improving local conditions. He said arrangements had been made whereby persons who had complaints to make or suggestions to offer, could telephone the Municipal Building, FReeport 8-4000, and they would be welcomed.

When numerous complaints were received regarding the conditions of roads in the area, it was decided to tour the territory, map the locations where filling in is needed and submit a report to the Village Board. Joseph Mertz, Prentice Woodbury and Frank Doudora volunteered to assist.

assist Fred Cook, chairman of a standing committee, in preparing such a report. President W. E. Watson said he would help also.

Announcement was made that the executive committee had been designated to work with the committee named by Mayor Robert L. Dossie to suggest ways of improving the Village Zoning Ordinance.

It was decided to renew the appeal for the erection of a sign indicating Lester ave. as a dead-end street. A letter is to be sent to the Village Board urging that steps be taken to enable bus companies operating in the southern section of the village to extend their lines to provide transit facilities for people living in the new development east of South Grove st. and south of Front st.

Henry J. Howard, Bert Hilbert, Oscar Ruppert and Harry Mithauer were received as members.

Announcement was made that Mayor Robert L. Dossie would address the next meeting to be held Thursday night, May 4.

Christine Science

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the lesson-sermon subject for Sunday at 11 A.M. in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, West Merriek rd. at Elm pl.

The golden text is "If any man shall have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous" (1 John 2:16).

The sermon will be from John 10:14-16, 27, 29 and 30, King James version: "I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "In divine Science, God and the real man are inseparable as divine Principle and idea. As a drop of water is one with the ocean, a ray of light one with the sun, even so God and man, Father and son, are one in being" (pp. 476, 361).

March of Dimes Total Here Raised to $9,961

Almost Double $5,000 Quota—Mrs. E. L. Keener Thanks All Who Aided

Revised figures show that Freeport's contribution to the March of Dimes in January totaled $9,961.62, instead of $9,000 announced a couple weeks ago. Mrs. Elmore L. Keener, the chairman, pointed out that this came within $38.38 of doubling the $5,000 quota assigned the village. Mrs. Keener expressed appreciation for the space devoted to the campaign by The LEADER.

"And, too, I am sure that the splendid cooperation of Harry Watson, owner of the Freeport broadcasting station and his most capable announcer, John Froge was most helpful," she continued.

"I wish it were possible for me to shake hands with every person who contributed to our campaign and to thank them for their generosity," she added, "especially those groups of women of the several auxiliaries of churches and other organizations. Not the least appreciated were those small sums from children's 'back yard shows'."

"As might have been expected, the pupils and teachers in all of our schools did a most wonderful job."

"And, of course, I will never be able to fully express my gratitude to those who undertook to go from door to door seeking contributions and who, sometimes, took abuse as a reward. I would like to give the names of those splendid workers but there are so many of them in number that I fear doing so would take up too much space."

Ice Cream Vending Pest Back In Town

There's a tinkle down the street. Boys and girls rush in to their mothers with a cry:

"The ice cream man's down the street. Give me a dime (or whatever the cost) for a popsicle! (or some other item).

And mother is supposed to "come across" forthwith. Failure to do so produces glum faces, even protests ranging from stamping of feet to fits of tantrums. This is repeated several times a day as representatives of one of the three concerns to which the Board has granted the privilege, make their rounds of the village duplicating each other's routes.

For the perennial pest is back in town disturbing the tranquility of many homes, because the children just insist on a treat every time one of the vendors goes through the street. This not only causes a drain on the family exchequer, but is not too good for the stomachs of the youngsters who overindulge in sweets and other concoctions. Furthermore the competition is unfair to local confectioners who have to pay high rents for stores and employ help to run their establishments. Also there is an element of risk as the children dash for the cart of the itinerant vendor paying little heed to other vehicles passing by.

While we do not contend the Village Fathers should refuse to grant such licenses, after having set the precedent of doing so several years, where there was only one company in the field, it might be well to adopt restrictions and divide the village into areas in one of which each might operate so as to limit the number of times a given section will be invaded during a day.

The Leader Bookshelf

By MRS. ELIZABETH F. KELLY
Librarian, Freeport
Memorial Library

When her father died, and her beloved home "Wildfire" was willed to her future husband, Kitty Gatewood, protected daughter of the South, took the six months' trip in the "Sea Bird" to Oregon to locate the lost lover. With her came all the necessary finery for her wedding—and Jessie Pearl, a negro slave, but nothing with which to make a home for Kitty had every intention of giving Mrs. Davis back to South Carolina on the next boat.

But this did not prove as easy to accomplish as Kitty had expected. First Philip Davis wasn't living where the "Sea Bird" docked, and Kitty had difficulty in inducing Curt Fletcher to take her along with them. When that hard trip had been endured, other difficulties arose. Again Kitty thought she would stay just a little longer in this land of "54-40 or fight." Curt told her she'd never want to leave. Kitty had an iron determination, covered by her attractive femininity and her ladylike manner. If she made a friend, and she didn't make too many for she held her own counsel, she kept them. Such a one was Sunset Lee, Curt Fletcher's partner.

Kitty saw Sunset bring in rescued settlers who were hardly able to keep on their feet; yet they did, they were so proud. She learned what a new country demands. These were also the days of the trouble between the United States and British Hudson Bay Company over the land; of the dreadful Whitman Massacre; of Indian trouble. Kitty lived to see the land of "each Bright River" by Mildred Masterston McNelly come into its own.

"Hardy pioneers" is a name that can be applied to many Norwegians who left their native land to settle in our country. A story of such is given us by Norman E. Nygaard in "They Sought a Country." This book is taken from Hebrews 11:14. For they say that such things declare plainly that they seek a country."

Olaf Trygerson and Torger Trygerson had been here for many years and while Torger wanted to go to the United States, his wife did not. It was the other way around in the Trygerson family. Olaf did not want to leave his native land, his wife wanted to do so. Finally, in 1869 the families agreed, preparations were made. Sadness came to them on the way over. Olaf, the shrewd one, had enough money, upon arriving in Canada to go direct to Minneapolis but Torger did not, so twice they stayed along the way, earning money for the next move towards their ultimate destination. Torger had been a farmer and his wife hoped he would acquire land and farm here but he was powerfully built and easily found work in railroad construction.

That brought the ready money, upon arriving in Canada to go direct to Minneapolis but Torger did not, so twice they stayed along the way, earning money for the next move towards their ultimate destination. Torger had been a farmer and his wife hoped he would acquire land and farm here but he was powerfully built and easily found work in railroad construction.

That brought the ready money, upon arriving in Canada to go direct to Minneapolis but Torger did not, so twice they stayed along the way, earning money for the next move towards their ultimate destination. Torger had been a farmer and his wife hoped he would acquire land and farm here but he was powerfully built and easily found work in railroad construction.

Methodist P.M. Group Has Its Easter Program

A program of music was given at the Easter meeting of the P.M. Group of the Ladies Society for Christian Service of the Freeport Methodist Church.

The program was opened with a worship service conducted by Mrs. Gladys Maynard, after which Mrs. Maynard played piano duets, "Spanish Dance" by Moszkowski, "Sonatina" by von Weber, and "Hungarian Dance No. 6" by Brahms. Richard Penniman played "The Story Ever-Told" by Stubb, on the baritone horn, and "Atlantic Zephyrs" by Simon, as a trombone solo.

The P.M. group sang "April Showers" by DeSylva and Silvers and "Easter Parade" by Irving Berlin. Mrs. Herbert Bond was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Theodore Frankenberg and Mrs. Orla Hills were in charge of refreshments.

VASIL'S VARIETIES

By Eddie Vasil

Without or with offense to friends or foes,
I sketch your world exactly as it goes.—Byron.

LEADER'S DIGEST . . . Freeport PBA (Police Benevolent Association) planning something for its annual event which is predicted to be the biggest thing Nassau ever witnessed. (BOB DUNCAN in 1950 was the sponsor. Guy Lombardo didn't sponsor GUY LOMBARDO April 11th after his Roosevelt Hotel record-breaking run. He was available and very interested. . . . Congratulations sent from all over the country to ATTY. PAUL KELLY, appointed Acting Police Justice. (He's got many friends, Albany, Washington, etc.) . . . EDMUND T. CHES- HERE launched his tour as new Freeport Village Clerk with full Nassau press OK. (Nice personality during initial press conference won't the support of the newsmen.)

YOUR FREEPORTER . . . Add the name of MARITA HIGMAN (228 Waverley st.) to the list of women who are natural to lead in civic activities. . . . The FPD antique "Black Maria Fire Wagon" finally received its death sentence. This Keystone Cop-type equipment will be replaced by a modern Police riot-squad vehicle. . . . A picket patrol a So. Main st. establishment looked like he was imported from the toughest of the wrestling arenas. . . . The Nassau County Board of Supervisors has taken to the produce business. (Seen Monday nite Fording his toughest "tomato" around town). . . . Those in the know have three more names to add to lullaby-singers who will claim premature debuts.

AROUND TOWN . . . One of the musts on the ELKS' calendar: Installation Dinner honoring Incoming Officers for 1950-51 tonight. (Veteran ED MEANEY heads committee which means it'll be a success.) . . . Sorry not able to accept Phil LaTerra's invite to attend ARCHER DAD'S Club annual Minstrel Show, Mar. 31. (Reports received that it was one of the best presentations ever offered by this live-wire group. This project is a good one which should be a model for others to copy.)

EDDIE TON'S NOTES . . . TASCA means The Atlantic South Civic Association. This is the largest of this type organization, yet the youngest. Meetings are held in the South Shore Yacht Club and the members are very active with attendance at capacity. THIS IS TRULY SYMBOLIC OF AMERICAN DEMOCRACY IN ACTION!—(I know, 'cause I was there, thanks to Mrs. Bill Watson and invite of Victor C. Wade, Public Relations chairman.) . . . Midget racing tycoon JAKIE KEDEN-BERG entered the matrimonial race in Florida? (Lots of luck.) . . . 1950 Freeport Beautification Committee means action. (CLINT GOLDEN announced that complaints are welcomed, phone FR 4-0000 direct.) . . . That charming woman doing with BOB VON ELK at Guy Lombardo's training home for her Easter vacation from Freeport Teachers College, when whispering and stares of other passengers caused the conductor to approach this FHS grad with the big suitcase and ask if she were running away from home. (She's nineteen but looks thirteen.)

OFF THE CUFF . . . MRS. PAUL DOUMENGUE a model in fashion during the Easter parade. (Does she design her own?) . . . THE RAY MALONES (he's Freeport Safety Councilman) entertaining DR. and MRS. HUYVELLE who motored from Dallas. (They're her folks.) . . . That charming woman doing with BOB VON ELK at Guy Lombardo's training home for her Easter vacation from Freeport Teachers College, when whispering and stares of other passengers caused the conductor to approach this FHS grad with the big suitcase and ask if she were running away from home. (She's nineteen but looks thirteen.)

TID-BITS . . . You should see the huge "rock" that JULIE POSNER's charming Anita wears. (It must be at least two karats!) . . . JO VIEDERMAN beat the trade by introducing the type yachting cap which will become a Long Island trade-mark. (Will this be a Godfrey-Lombardo feature?) . . . I'll be a white dinner jacket summer season for the social world if one judges by GEORGE-STANLEY records. (They're the W. Sunrises from which is almost booked for the season in rentals.) . . . Public hearing of Freeport's new budget set for April 20th. (Probably one of the few municipalities where the tax rate will be lowered.) . . . Freeport Parking Field Attendants chief warns motorists from speeding into the lots. Too many near accidents lately.

DURYEA ORCHID CREATION . . . A Nassau County Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society was formed at the Shorecrest Hotel last week. Project is to raise funds for research into the cause of this disease which killed Lou Gehrig and many others. Mrs. MEREL DUNN was elected temporary chairman. Your reporter's hostess for the evening was a charming twenty-year old member who has been afflicted with the disease for the past six years. Yes, she was graduated from Hempstead High School, and attended the New York College of Music (NYU) as a voice pupil for two years. This talented and beautiful girl emerged from the terrors of terrific pain, lengthy diagnosis, personal sacrifice, etc., to become one of the prime leaders in this project so that other victims may be helped. This flowery letter is not offered in sympathy, but in sincere admiration of her spirit and courage. It is therefore a great pleasure to award the DURYEA ORCHID to MISS AURORA GIORDANO as a token to her and to the members of her organization. Best wishes and full cooperation in your most worthy enterprise.

THIS 'N THAT . . . ALAN W. VOLLMER appearing on the shingle at 5 Railroad ave. as a new member of the insurance fraternity. (He's also a law student.) . . . Catch 2-year-old tap dancing LEROY WELLES and you'll agree he's embryo star material. (His whole family's talented.) . . . MISS HAZEL LANE (she's a teacher at his school, the Academy of Theatrical Arts) is a former tutor of movie and radio stars. (Ann Blythe, Bobby Jordan, etc.) . . . MRS. MILLER and daughter, JUDITH, look like a sister team while preparing for the Children's Theatre Project (Red Shoes) presentation at Carnegie Recital Hall May 21. . . . It's HERB WOODS' right hand man JACK COFFEY who is engineering the record-breaking Freeport parking field program construction. (Expected.) . . . MRS. ANN MARKS (L.I. ARMY-NAVY) returned from Miami. . . . Ditto 67-year-old KATE STARR from California where she first time planned.

DESSERT . . . Rumors from those who know that if investigation was conducted definite need for central NC transit commission would be proven. . . . Veteran copper JOHN W. MCKENNE retired April 1 after 25 years with FPD. . . . Columnist material: What's the story about one who won a king's ransom in Caddies during a 3-4 day poker session? . . . MRS. M. MCKENNE's grandmother in April. . . . DAVE LEVY modeling his own Botany tie.

Stamp to Mark Capital 150th Anniversary

The first stamp of the National Capital Sesquicentennial commemorative series, the 3-cent Freedom, will be released through the Washington D.C. post office next Thursday. The printing of 125,000,000 Freedom stamps has been authorized.

The central design is a reproduction of the Statue of Freedom, by Crawford, which surmounts the dome of the Capitol at Washington. Below this is a ribbon on which appears the word "National Capital Sesquicentennial 1800-1950" in dark Gothic. To the left of the statue near the base are the words "U.S. Postage," and to the right is the denomination numeral "3c" in the same style of lettering.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of this stamp may send a limited number of addressed envelopes, not in excess of 10, to the Postmaster, Washington, D.C. with postal note or money order remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed. Postage stamps and personal checks will not be accepted in payment. This stamp will be placed on sale in Freeport on April 21, or as soon thereafter as a supply is received.

Jewish Women Plan Luncheon For Television Fund

To augment its monthly visits to the Town of Hempstead Home for the Aged in East Meadow, the Welfare Group of the East Nassau Section, National Council of Jewish Women, is raising funds with which to purchase a television set. The purpose of this project is to provide residents of the home with something to alleviate their loneliness between the monthly visits.

For this purpose the committee will sponsor a luncheon in the India House, Belmont, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Mary W. Schneider, the chairman, in announcing the event said:

"Tickets for this luncheon are still available. However, for those who cannot possibly attend such a function and who would like to take part in helping to buy this much needed television set, contributions, no matter how small would be greatly appreciated. Won't you join in this opportunity to bring years of entertainment and gaiety to the actual threshold of those who would otherwise be forever estranged from fun and laughter, by mailing your contribution or your request for a 2 ticket to our luncheon to Mrs. Schneider, 120 Jay st., Freeport, L.I."

REPORTERS SUMMONED FOR SERVICE AS JURORS
Sheriff H. Alfred Vollmer has summoned the following residents for trial jury service in Nassau Supreme court beginning Monday: Alexander A. Saccardi, Ernest A. Spokes and Gilbert W. Stewart.

Called for County Court trial jury service were: William T. Ferguson, Madge E. Filkins, Henry J. Howard, Otto J. Jensen, Joseph Knapp, Matthew L. Murdy, William Nagengast, Max Pirodsky and Frank A. Whitney.

COURT STELLA MARIS DANCE TOMORROW AT S. S. Y. C.

Everything is in readiness for the dance to be given tomorrow night by Court Stella Maris, C.D.A., in the South Shore Yacht Club. A large crowd is expected. Mrs. Walter Pope is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

Others on the committee are Mrs. Douglas Blakeley, Mrs. Charles Blawie, Mrs. Louise Blawie, Mrs. Oliver Fredsal, Mrs. Richard A. Hungerford, Mrs. Joseph Kerns, Mrs. Charles Livingston, Mrs. Harriet Lyons, Mrs. John Metz, Miss Margaret O'Keefe, Mrs. William J. Martin, Jr., Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. Joseph MacDonald, Mrs. William Pearson, Mrs. John Powers, Mrs. A. J. Simonson, Miss Margaret Russell, Mrs. Percy Voorhis and Mrs. William Wood.

Several Groups Sponsor 3 Plays on Discipline

Three new plays on Discipline will be presented three successive Thursday nights in the Garden City High School starting Thursday night, April 26.

The local groups responsible for bringing the plays to Nassau County are the Long Island District of the Parent-Teacher Association, Nassau County Mental Hygiene Association, Nassau-Suffolk Association for Childhood Education, Nursery Education Council of Nassau-Suffolk, South Shore Section Council of Jewish Women and the Women's Auxiliary Nassau County Medical Society.

The plays entitled "Temperament Zone" are about the Climate of the Home. The series relates the emotional climate in which children develop self discipline to the kind of authority adults by the adults which sets the limits for behavior. A fourth session has been added to provide for a panel discussion on all three plays.

NASSAU CHORUS SETS MAY 27 FOR CONCERT

The Spring concert of the Nassau Chorus will be held in the Malverne High School on Saturday night, May 27. This was decided at a meeting of the executive committee in the home of Miss Viola Smith, in Valley Stream. One of Arthur Godfrey's talent winners will be the guest artist for the occasion. The chorus will put on a program under the direction of Miss Viola Smith. There will be selections by a female quartet, a group of 12 women and an all male group.

A membership drive is now under way with three types of membership offered, $3; $10 professional and $25 associate.

Plans are already under way for the party to be held Wednesday, May 31, to wind up the season's work.

CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH EVENTS FOR WEEK LISTED

At Christ Lutheran Church Sunday, the pastor, the Rev. David G. Jaxheimer will preach at the Matins service Sunday at 9 A.M., on "Changing the Rules" and at 10:45 on "The Victorious Life."

At 8 P.M. there will be a district rally for Nassau-Suffolk Counties in the interest of CHEYER (Christian Higher Education Year Scheme).

The senior Luther League will meet at 7:30 P.M., and the Young People's Luther League on Monday night. Wednesday night a film "The Difference," a story of Church school, will be shown.

SPARTAN FELLOWSHIP CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL DANCE

The Fellowship Club of Spartan Lodge, F. & A.M., is planning for its annual dance to be held in the temple on Saturday night, April 29. An outstanding orchestra has been engaged to play for dancing. The proceeds will help to swell the club's welfare fund.

Members of the club are going to Elmhurst Field on June 28 by bus to see the Dodgers in action.

Miss Florence Baldwin Weds Conrad W. McCarthy

Miss Florence Marie Baldwin, daughter of Mrs. Marie Baldwin, 33 Pearl st., and Conrad W. McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. McCarthy, 81 Woodside ave., were the principals in an Easter Sunday wedding in Trinity Episcopal Church, Brooklyn. The Rev. George Grumman, the pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Edward McCarthy, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Mr. McCarthy best man. Following the ceremony, the couple returned to the bride's home for a reception. They are to live in an apartment provided for them at the Woodside ave. address.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy were graduated from Freeport High School. The bride later attended the Drake Business School and is employed as a stenographer in the office of the Freeport Board of Education.

Plaza Theatre Management Changed as of March 20

Mrs. Gary J. Piccione announced today a change in management of the Plaza Theatre, of which she is proprietor with Thomas A. Lorenzo as manager. The change took effect on March 30.

"We will present wholesome family entertainment at the Plaza Theatre," Mr. di Lorenzo said, "and we will make every attempt to contribute our efforts towards making Freeport a leading entertainment centre in Nassau. We will answer the prayer of many movie-goers for a single feature picture program by offering one such program every week on Thursday and Friday. If we find a sufficient response to this type of program we will continue it as a policy. We will always guide ourselves by what the movie-going public demands."

Before coming to Freeport, this year, Mr. di Lorenzo spent two years at the Malverne Theatre, Malverne. He spent a brief period at the Freeport Theatre some years ago, when it was under the direction of the late Major Rasmussen.

Korbin and Gilroy Plots Figure in Realty Sales

Junior Mercy League Plans Card Party May 5

Plans for the fourth annual card party of the Freeport Junior League for Mercy Hospital were made at the April meeting held in MacArthur Hall in the hospital. The date was set for Friday night May 5 and the event will be held in the hospital. Mrs. Girard Regan and Mrs. James Brady were named as co-chairmen to be assisted by Mrs. Ralph Regan, Mrs. Edward Walte and Mrs. Joseph Donnelly.

Mrs. John Drescher, the president named the following nominating committee to report at the May meeting: Miss Margaret O'Keefe, Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Walte and Mrs. John Campani.

Mrs. Samuel Nobel and Mrs. Jean Ebert, of Baldwin, and Mrs. James Connelly, of Cedarhurst, were received as members.

Miss Ann Cassidy was appointed chairman of a Buy-A-Brick campaign to raise funds for the erection of a new building.

The women made tray decorations for Good Friday and Easter. Refreshments were served.

Hope Diamond—Not a Jinx Gem But a Marble Carrying a Hex

By BILLY ROSE

The members of the gang squatted in a small circle on a patch of green—a block away from the subway station at 242nd-street. Their eyes were in fixed focus on a shiny object at their feet—the Hope Diamond.

Let me end the suspense here and now by announcing that the life game was made up of boys who had gotten together to decide the marble championship of the Upper Bronx, and that the shiny object at their feet was not the unlucky stone of great price you've been reading about for years, but a legendary agate known to small fry from the Triborough Bridge to Spuyten Duyvil as the Hope Diamond shooter.

Now, a shooter, or "real," as the aficionados call it, looks a lot like an ordinary marble, but any kid who knows a heist-shot from a knuckle-down can tell you the difference. The shooter is heavier, truer, more cunningly fashioned than the ordinary 'imie, and, even more important, there exists between it and the thumb and forefinger of its owner a spiritual affinity which makes it more precious to him than all the other marbles he owns. When a player loses in a "for-keeps" game, he pays off with common, earth-bound miggles—he would no more think of parting with his shooter than a good family man would with his life insurance.

Billy Rose

Well, for most of the season it looked as if the rich kid was a cheetah to win. Not only did the Diamond connect with everything he went after, but he seemed to have the other shooters that attempted to hit it inspired and made confident by its performance, the kid from Riverside sighted long and carefully, considered the topography of the ground and, when the situation called for extreme measures, even shot from the stomach position. However, the match entered the tenth and final round, a station wagon pulled up and a hefty Swede of a nursemaid got out.

"Ja-ackle," she shouted. "Dinner's almost ready and look at your clothes. You're a sight!"

"Wait a minute," said the kid, squinting at a marble four feet away.

"Albert!" yelled the nursemaid. A chauffeur with big shoulders got out and walked toward the circle. Jackie dropped the Hope Diamond in disgust, said "Aw, nuts!" and climbed into the station wagon. And, as it drove away, the blood-shot eye of the blue shooter seemed to wink at the other players.

Rhyme Michernick faked up. "This is the last time it's going to put the squitch on anybody," he said, and threw it as far as he could.

Now, if the Hope Diamond had been an ordinary shooter, the story would end here. But, as I have gone to some pains to make clear, it was not. Propelled by the Michernick muscles, the little ball of fire sailed through the air for 50 feet, bounced off a tin can onto the sidewalk, and was picked up an hour later by an intern on his way to the hospital.

"I know someone who'll get a real kick out of this," he said, handing the Hope Diamond shooter to one of the nurses. "Will you give this marble to the patient in room 218. Whitley Wiscozki—the little boy who broke his ribs."
